Dear General Carter

STAT We are most grateful for the excellent presentation given by [redacted] before the Air Force Intelligence Reserve Officers' Seminar on Friday, 5 October 1962. The comments of the officers in attendance indicate that [redacted] excellent address on "The Scope of National Intelligence" was one of the highlights of a memorable day. His professional insight and broad working knowledge of an important segment of national security have added substantially to the attainment of our Reserve training objectives.

STAT It would be appreciated if you would be kind enough to convey to [redacted] the gratitude of the Reserve Officers' Group and myself for an informative and thorough presentation.

Sincerely
